The Catholic Book Club

How to join the CBC

Your first order makes you a member of CBC. For your first order you may select any two books from this list. They are yours for the price of one—$2.98.

Once a month you will receive a free newsletter with book reviews and book news. With it will be a self-addressed return card made out for you for any choice you wish—or none at all. It is clear and simple. Bills never pile up. We stop shipment after two unpaid selections.

Select any TWO for the price of one—$2.98

Here are the answers...

to three questions in your mind about book club

1. How much do the books cost?
2. Are the books good ones that I would want to read?
3. Is there bother once I join or if I want to drop out?

ABOUT THE COST

All Catholic Book Club selections cost you $2.98 regardless of the list price. Last year the average saving to members per month was $1.20, or 29%.

ABOUT THE BOOKS

The CBC books are chosen by a committee of laymen headed by Rev. Harold C. Gardiner, S.J., literary editor of AMERICA for 17 years. All of the five authors, critics and reviewers. CBC books are chosen for three qualities: a) worth-while subject, b) interesting treatment, c) outstanding readability.

ABOUT BOTHER

America Press, under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers, owns and operates the CBC. Bother is kept to an absolute minimum. The return card system is used because every month more than half of the members take a book. No C.O.D. No dues. Postage prepaid. You can cancel your membership at any time.

Catholic Book Club, Dept. CMD

70 East 45th Street, New York 17, N. Y.

Enroll me in the Catholic Book Club. Send me two books checked at left at special introductory price of $2.98. I understand all selections cost members only $2.98 and I get CBC Newsletter monthly announcing each selection. I am to accept or reject it and I may at any time cancel membership.
